The City

The City of Mukilteo, incorporated in 1947, operates as a non-charter code city with a Mayor-Council form of government. The Mayor is Chief Executive Officer of the City and the City Council is the legislative body that enacts laws and regulations, establishes policy direction for the City, establishes tax and fee rates, adopts the annual budget, and approves payments of all City monies. The City has 120 employees and a 2017 adopted budget of $32,140,758.

Our Community

Rich in history, Mukilteo was the site of the 1855 Point Elliott Treaty signed between Territorial Governor Isaac Stevens and 82 Indian Leaders representing twenty-two tribes. Mukilteo is home to the 1906 Mukilteo Lighthouse and Mukilteo Lighthouse Park, which attract nearly a million visitors annually. Mukilteo balances its sedate and picturesque setting with its role as a transit hub for 2.4 million vehicles and over 4 million commuters who utilize the Sound Transit Train Station, Washington State Ferry service, and State Route 525.

Rosehill Community Center opened in 2011 on the site of the former Rosehill School and welcomes 80,000 customers per year with its’ sweeping views of picturesque Puget Sound, Whidbey Island, Historic Light Station, and the Mukilteo Ferry. The center provides and facilitates safe, quality leisure services, programs, and facilities while preserving and enhancing natural resources. The Center’s 29,000 square feet offers four classrooms, four lounge areas, game room, fitness/weight room, dance/aerobics room, art room, and the Point Elliott Room which boasts 3,500 square feet, a 1,500 square foot stage, dressing rooms, commercial-style kitchen, and a large deck overlooking Puget Sound. Outside facilities include a wedding circle, plaza, lawn area, and picnic shelters.
Mukilteo is a safe, attractive community with the kind of services and amenities that continue to attract national attention. Money Magazine named Mukilteo the 10th best town in the United States in 2009 and Business Week Magazine named Mukilteo one of the best affordable suburbs of 2006.

Today, the city’s population is 21,080 and its diverse, multi-cultural residents continue to share a great sense of pride, history and tradition of community involvement. Mukilteo amenities include an award-winning public golf course, quaint shopping areas, restaurants, financial institutions, and several parks and open spaces for recreation opportunities.
